Staff and Volunteer Openings Available for the Game Center

For all gamers who not only want to attend Megaplex, but also are interested in contributing to it, we have some openings available for the Megaplex Game Center. We welcome gamers across all types (console games, board games, card games, and the like) amongst all generations (1970s games all the way up to the current day). After logging in to the Megaplex site, you can fill out a staff application here.

And it isn't just extra hands that would be of great help: If you wish to contribute or loan equipment (such as displays, systems, controllers, game media, board and card games) please contact the staff to arrange for providing equipment. We know gaming is also a major part of a convention for many people that attend, so we would love your help to improve this portion of the convention considerably.

Attention All Dealers and Artist Alley potentials!

This year, we are going to have a little bit of a change for the Dealer's den and artist alley. In order to be sure we are in 100% compliant in sales tax obligations, we are going to be ensuring that everything is above board. If you are going to be selling goods at the con, either in the dealer's room or artist alley, you will need to provide proof of a current valid Florida sales tax certificate. If you do not have a tax certificate, we will be taking down the name of any one selling goods at the convention, and issuing them a sales tax packet as provided to use by the state of Florida.

We will not be policing if people actually file correctly, but we will be documenting that at least we made sure that every person selling was provided with the correct information to submit their sales tax on collected revenue.

Thanks to Everyone Who Backed "Fosgate: Ferret Loan Officer"

Thanks to many massively generous contributions, we're currently at our goal to bring Fosgate to Megaplex! More information on the show will be made available as we get closer to the start of the convention.

Help us Bring "Fosgate: Ferret Loan Officer" to Megaplex!

If you liked Julie Bunny, you'll love Fosgate: Ferret Loan Officer, but we can only bring this magical stage show to Megaplex with your help. The show producer needs funding to be able to stage another production of this show, so he's setup a Kickstarter Account to collect donations.

Every little bit helps, even just a $1, but donate $10 and get your name listed in the program, or donate $25 or more for additional goodies! Check out the Kickstarter Account for all of the details. Just keep in mind that time is of the essence due to the complex planning involved, so at least $2,500 in donations must come in by Sunday Mar 3, 11:59pm EST or the show won't go on.

For more information on Fosgate: Ferret Lone Officer, please see this review of the show at the Orlando Fringe Festival.
You can be in Cerberus' next video!

Submitted by megaplex on Sun, 10/21/2012 - 18:25

UPDATE: We're sold out of video spots! Thanks to everybody who pre-registered as a supersponsor or gigasponsor! And don't forget, we offer other incentives for sponsoring. :)

Do you enjoy the Rockoons videos? Would you like to have your character included in Cerberus' newest animation? Here's a rare opportunity for you to have exactly that.

Our Guest of Honor Cerberus is creating a special animated video for Megaplex. He has agreed to include the first 10 members who pre-register as a Supersponsor or higher in the video finale. So you can help out the convention AND have your character included in a one-of-a-kind music video! How cool is that?!?

Read on for more details.
