Bandits beware: The cops are on your tail and out to catch you!

Since 2002, Florida's furry arts and entertainment convention has brought interactive fun and performance to the state of Florida. This year we welcomed honored guests FableFire, best known for her Woot.com shirt designs, and Fizz Otter, known for his laser show art and laser-etched acrylic con badges. And as always, there were legions of panels, games, special events and musical performances.

This year's theme was "Cops & Robbers." 1,472 attendees joined us July 31 - Aug 3, 2015 in Orlando for some Furry Fun in the Florida Sun!

Go see how much fun we had in 2014 and previous years at the Megaplex Archives! And check out the external links in the top right of this page to follow us on your social network of choice.

Fablefire Medical Update

July 28, 2015

Unfortunately Fablefire will be unable to attend Megaplex as Guest of Honor this year due to a medical illness. Read on for a message from her that she posted on FurAffinity. Please join us in wishing her a speedy recovery.

From FableFire:

Whelp, I've taken every medicine and supplement in my arsenal and tried every medical trick I have, but no luck. The fatigue and pain parade continues! So... I will not be able to make it to Megaplex this week. Very sad. I have been looking forward to this opportunity for a long time. At least everyone going can get a super awesome shirt still! I'll post the design later this week.

Anyway...

This weekend: If you send me a pic of your Megaplex badge via twitter, tumblr, or instagram, along with link to your ref sheet, I will do a freebie sketch for you!

Much thanks for all the well wishes. I will need to change up my medical strategy again so I can be good to go for Rainfurrest! :D

Reminder Panel & DJ submission deadline is Fri. May 1st

April 7, 2015

If you're planning to submit a panel, DJ, or event to host at Megaplex 2015, get your submissions in now! This the last call!

You can help make Megaplex as action-packed as ever. Hosting an event is fun AND rewarding! Ever wanted to share what you know about art, performance or something else? There are attendees eager to learn from you! Or how about a meet-and-greet for your favorite species or a common interest?

For every hour of volunteer work at Megaplex (including hosting panels or events), we'll give you a $5 credit toward registration for Megaplex 2015.

Artists, We Need Your Help!

February 12, 2015

Are you an artist? Do you like to write short stories? Or maybe you like to express yourself artistically in other ways. Megaplex wants YOU.

We are currently seeking submissions for this years ConBook and Art for our showcase during the convention.

If you have a creative idea that you think delves into the dark world of criminals and robbers or the high intensity rush and adventure of a Cop then we would love to feature your work in our Con Book!
