A LETTER FROM OUR CO-CHAIRS

We would like to take a moment to welcome you to Megaplex 2016: British Invasion. This is Megaplex's 15th year: A decade and a half of bringing together people from all over the world to share in a weekend of fun. To celebrate the occasion we wanted to show our appreciation to all our attendees with The Embassy Suites hotel, where everyone gets a suite. You showed your excitement by booking every room in the hotel within days. We also said, "Let's offer poster spots again this year," and super-sponsors filled them in minutes.

We would like to welcome our two Guests of Honor for this year, Cosmic Wuffy and Kenket. These two incredible people are helping us make this year memorable in ways we could only dream. They and our many panelists and performers have generously donated their time to bring great content and entertainment. You can learn more about our guests on pages 6 and 7.

Every year we get hundreds of comments and survey responses that help us plan for the following year. No matter what the comment is, we read them all and we try to address every single one. Some changes you may notice this year: The Artist Alley has been incorporated into the Dealers Den, the poker tournament will no longer take over the board game room, and Floor Wars has been introduced to the schedule. We want each Megaplex to be better than the last, so be sure to fill out a survey after the convention and let us know what we did right and especially what we could improve upon.

Ever wonder how we do what we do? In truth, we couldn't without our incredible volunteer staff of over 60 people. Without them none of what you see this weekend would have been remotely possible.

On behalf of all the Megaplex Staff, we would like to thank you for spending the weekend with us at Megaplex. We know there are many conventions all around the world and we are all delighted that you chose to include Megaplex in your travel and convention plans.

Allow myself to introduce...myself.

The name's Pounce "Danger" Panther, AKA Kitty Powers: International Cat of Mystery! But you can just call me Pounce. I'm Megaplex's mascot and your "groovy" guide for the remainder of this book.

Our theme for year 15 of our little furry celebration is "British Invasion," which means we are also celebrating pop culture from - and inspired by - our friends across the pond. Expect to see as many references to your favorite British bands, books and TV shows throughout the convention as you can imagine.

Returning as our charity are our friends at The C.A.R.E. Foundation. These hard working souls do a smashing job helping central Florida wildlife and rescuing hundreds of critters small and big. With your support, we hope to raise a record breaking donation total to help them out. Take a moment to speak with them at Megaplex, and if you are able, please donate! Every little bit helps. Find out more about what C.A.R.E. does and how you can support them this weekend on Pages 8 and 9.

I'll be wandering the hallways all weekend in Swinging London fashion. Don't be a stranger if you see me, baby! Say hello, give a hug! Costumers, you might also find me at our photo suite run by Furshoot in Cypress 1. Check in with them during convention hours for more information.

Cheers!

Welcome to the Embassy Suites Lake Buena Vista South

GUESTS OF HONOR

Here's a neat fact about me, Pounce the Panther! Did you know that us Florida panthers eat mostly hogs and deer? Occasionally we'll make a meal out of raccoons, rabbits, waterfowl or the occasional tasty armadillo. All of this is great news for this year's guests of honor, because they are none of those things.

As it turns out, there's more to Kenket and Cosmic than how inedible they are. Here's what we know:

Cosmic Wuffy

Cosmic is most known for melting unsuspecting viewers into puddles with his adorable fursuiting shenanigans on Vine.com. He has been part of the furry world since 2012, originally offering small hand-crafted commissions on Tumblr, before debuting his fursuit (commissioned from PhoenixWolf Suits) in September 2013.

Fresh out of art school, Cosmic regularly attends meet-ups in London, and also participates in charity events in support of Cancer Research UK. He has raised nearly $10k with help from friends and family in sponsored charity races, fund raisers, and even bungee jumps. Cosmic's Vine entries, some of which have been shown in news articles and podcasts, have nearly 30 million collective loops today.

You can find Cosmic at the "Meet the Guests of Honor" event, Friday at 6:30pm in the Main Ballroom. He is also hosting "Do it Fur the Vine!" on Friday at 2:30pm in Panel Room 3/4.

(If only us panthers could eat wolves! Then this sweet one would be the perfect dessert. -Pounce)

Kenket

Kenket (Tess Garman) is no stranger to furry fandom. Known for her rich, vivid paintings and colorful personality, she has appeared as a guest at furry conventions throughout the states. She moved from the U.K. to the U.S. after getting her degree in Biology and Wildlife Illustration.

Part of the artist formerly known as Blotch, she first got involved in furry fandom in 2001, when she and 230 others invaded a German castle (an incident more commonly known as Eurofurence 7). Since then she has attended 22,385,420 conventions and worked on multiple projects, including the Dog's Days of Summer, Nordguard, and Room Party: the Game. She also did time in the brony fandom collaborating with Sophie Cabra to bring many small colorful horses with meaningful butt tattoos into the world.

Presently, she lurks in her paint infused lair in Colorado where she mixes acrylic, ink, watercolors and beer to conjure as many animal people as she can from the void.

You can find Kenket at the "Meet the Guests of Honor" event, Friday at 6:30pm in the Main Ballroom. She is also hosting "Marketing Your Art" on Friday at 10pm in Panel Room 3/4.

(Kenket's fursona is a raven. Ravens do look absolutely delicious, but I checked the handbook and panthers don't usually eat ravens. Darn! -Pounce)

Hm...Maybe they shouldn't have let me write the con book content on an empty stomach. Oh well, too late. It's already gone to print.

OUR CHARITY

It's me, Pounce, again! Now if you're like me - a wild animal - then you're probably well aware that the natural life ain't an easy one. Many find themselves in need here in Florida: Natives like myself might become sick or injured, exotic pets are abandoned or neglected. Countless creatures unfit for the wild are required to depend on humans for food, shelter and veterinary care.

That's why I'm a big fan of Megaplex's returning charity, The C.A.R.E. Foundation! C.A.R.E. provides non-domestic, non-releasable animals with a safe, permanent home. They educate the public about local wildlife and conservation and environmental issues concerning endangered and threatened species.

To accomplish this, C.A.R.E. relies on donations. I'm pleased to share that in the last 11 years Megaplex has raised more than $42,000 for C.A.R.E.'s animals and educational programs. As the convention continues to grow, I hope that with your help we can support their cause more than ever before.

The C.A.R.E. Foundation is a non-profit 501(C)3 Exotic Animal Rescue and Wildlife Education Facility. Learn more about C.A.R.E., including a guided tour of the animals, at thecarefoundation.org or stop by their table in the Dealer's Den.

Charity Poker Tournament

Saturday, August 6 • 2:30pm - 6:30pm Breakfast Overflow

Donate for a seat in the tournament and test your skill and luck against fellow furrries! Fun for a good cause. Buy-in TBA.

Puck's Pickled Show (For Charity)

Sunday, August 7 • 12:00am - 2:00am Panel 3-4

There will be alcohol, stories, improv, and unforgettable moments. Well, Puck will probably forget them the next day, but you won't! Donations will be collected during the show.

The C.A.R.E. Charity Auction

Sunday, August 7 • 11:00am - 12:00pm Main Ballroom

Here's your chance to claim unique and cool goodies donated by attendees. We take credit cards! (We're typically in a good enough mood to give them back, too.)

C.A.R.E. Presentation

Sunday, August 7 • 10:00am - 11:00am Main Ballroom

Learn all about the work C.A.R.E. does in rescuing and caring for exotic and wild animals. Regrettably, no live animals are on display this year, but there are still plenty of pretend ones.

Donation Boxes

All weekend!

These can be found throughout the con and at certain events. You may spot some fuzzies like Pounce wandering the halls with them! If you're a fursuiter and want to help collect donations, visit our information desk to sign up.

*HELP ME IF YOU CAN, I'M FEELING DOWN,
AND I DO APPRECIATE YOU BEING AROUND,
HELP ME GET MY FEET BACK ON THE GROUND, WOON'T YOU PLEASE, PLEASE HELP ME?*

HOW DO I MEGAPLEX?

If this is your first time here, you're probably still expecting to see a whole bunch of people in animal costumes with big goofy faces running around and asking for hugs. Boy, have we got news for you, my friend: That was spot on. You are already a bona fide Megaplex expert! But just in case, here are some events this weekend you might like to check out and see what Megaplex really has to offer:

Opening Ceremonies

Fri 10a-11a, Main Ballroom

Our "Ceremonial Opening," if you will, to officially welcome furries young and old to our little celebration here in Kissimmee, Florida. We'll introduce ourselves and our guests, talk about the big weekend to come, and share any last minute announcements we might have.

Your First Furry Con?

Fri 11a-12:30p, Main Ballroom

If this is your first furry con, the "Your First Furry Con" panel is right up your alley. Never been to a "Your First Furry Con" panel before? Ask us about our upcoming "Your First 'Your First Furry Con' Panel" panel! It's the perfect way to learn what to expect from your first "Your First Furry Con" panel at your first furry con.

Intro to Fursuiting

Fri 4p-5:30p, Panels 3-4

What does it take to get into fursuiting? Costumers AcidFox and Construpo demonstrate the basics of fursuit performance and maintenance, surviving conventions, and staying healthy.

Meet the Guests of Honor

Fri 6:30p-7:30p, Main Ballroom

We hope Kenket and CosmicWuffy have been studying up on their own skill sets, personal lives and fandom experience, because the audience and host Kuddlepup will be grilling them on those very topics. This should be good.

Dessert Social

Fri 9p-11p, Main Breakfast Cafe

We conducted numerous studies earlier this year regarding our ambitious Desert Social. Sadly, it seems the world just isn't ready for such plans. We deeply apologize to everyone who was looking forward to wandering the vast, blistering sands, delirious with thirst, too starved and burned to express your joy. Instead you will find yourself desperately trying to overcome the influx of refreshing, complimentary after-dinner treats lovingly prepared by our hotel's astounding kitchen staff, per the old Megaplex tradition of "Dessert Social."

C.A.R.E. Presentation and Charity Auction

Sun 10a-12p, Main Ballroom

Megaplex's returning charity talks about what they do and why they do it. Our friends at C.A.R.E. love to share stories about their experiences in wildlife rescue, and there are new stories every year. The charity auction begins at 11 AM - It's your chance to walk home with great stuff in exchange for supporting a great organization.

Pawpets Show Live!

Sun 3:30p-5:30p, Main Ballroom

Megaplex had its humble beginnings in 2002 as "Pawpet Megaplex," with the grand attendance of 126. Fifteen years later you can still enjoy the Funday Pawpet Show that started it all, live on stage with games, variety show events, interviews, surprises and more.

Closing Ceremonies

Sun 7p-8p, Main Ballroom

Relive the memories, find out what this year's statistics were, and get a sneak peek at new things for Megaplex 2017.

FURSUIT ACTIVITIES

Sat 1:30p-2:30p, Main Ballroom

We herd all the fuzzy critters we can into one place for a giant group photo and then release a slow-motion stampede across the hotel. Be in the ballroom no later than 2:00 to participate!

Late Night Fursuit Parade

Sun 9:30p-10:30p, Headless Lounge

No furry con can call itself prepared without a redundant backup fursuit parade solution to prevent irreplaceable fursuit parade loss. Whether or not you missed the first one, come enjoy this staple of Megaplex's closing night.

Headless Lounge

Studies show that public decapitation is the leading cause of "ruining a magic." Visit our courtesy Headless Lounge to cool down and hydrate away from prying eyes.

Fursuit Games

Sun 3p-5p, Main Ballroom

Listen up, cadets! There are SEVERAL unique fursuit games between 1500 and 1700 hours. RELAY races! ELIMINATION challenges! PROP games - TO name a FEW! YOU'RE gonna have to master ALL of them before you hit the STREETS, or guess what? You're DEAD, bunny bumpkins!

Fursuit Dance Competition

Sat 7p-9p, Main Ballroom

It's time to shake those tails! This is a highly attended event, so you'll want to arrive early to get a good seat. To audition, visit the Info Desk for details.

Floor Wars

Sun 12:30p-2:30p, Main Ballroom

The Ceiling Scuffles ceased. The Wall Brawls stalled. But the Floor Wars flourish! It's Megaplex's first dance battle for competitors in or out of costume.

If life seems jolly rotten - There's something you've forgotten
And that's to laugh and smile and dance and sing!
When you're feeling in the dumps, don't be silly chumps
Just purse your lips and whistle - that's the thing.

We ignored the warnings and fed them alcohol after midnight. Now they have grown too powerful. This pepper-fox fusion is not for the weak-hearted.

AN EVENING COMMUTE IN CHEADLE HULME

BY SKIPPYFOX

Distance from work to hotel: 1 mile. Side of the road: left. Steering wheel on the right. Unfamiliar road signs, unfamiliar roads. What the hell, I can do this. I'm ready! How freaking hard can this be?

My new work associates smile and hand me the keys. And that is it. I'm given no instructions, nothing. I try to hide the anxious twitch in my whiskers when I remind them to at least show me which car I get. I quietly assure myself: Travelers do this all the time. Adjusting should be a breeze! I feel better until James reminds me, "You can drive stick, right?"

"Ooh...er, yes, absolutely." Yeah, great show of confidence there, buddy. Well, maybe he didn't notice the tell-tale whisker twitch. Or my ears flattening against my head.

Ok. 1 measly mile. Wrong side of the road, wrong side of the car. Just have to remind myself that left is right, right is left. Itty bitty narrow roads. Manual transmission. I've done that last part before. Just need to remember how to do it again, you know, at the same time as I'm acclimating myself to everything else. Yeeah...

I unlock the car and get in. In confusion, my eyes narrow. In realization, they roll. I get out, walk around to the other side of the car, climb into the driver's seat. Tuck my bushy tail in, shut the door, start the car. A long, slow exhale.

I drive around the parking lot a bit to warm up. I could use a little more time - shifting into first is trickier than I remember - but daylight is fading, so I go on my way. Left is right, right is left.

I immediately turn left instead of right. Well, that's just brilliant.

After a fair amount of whimpering I eventually get myself turned back around, crawling along the road. Just as I start to feel like I am finally getting the hang of things, I notice smoke billowing out from under the hood.

My normally rust-colored fur is as gray as the smoke, and every strand is on end. I watch the plumes, unblinking, eyes wide. My ears have not returned from their flattened position against my scalp, and by now there is a very real possibility they simply never will.

Nope. Nope nope nope. I try to pretend nothing is wrong. Maybe this is just what cars in the U.K. are supposed to do! Please, let me just get to the hotel. I just need to get to the hotel!

At this point, a helpful older badger walking across the road does a wonderful thing: He approaches my car, waves to get my attention, smiles and politely advises me: "Hey...YOUR CAR IS ON FIRE!"

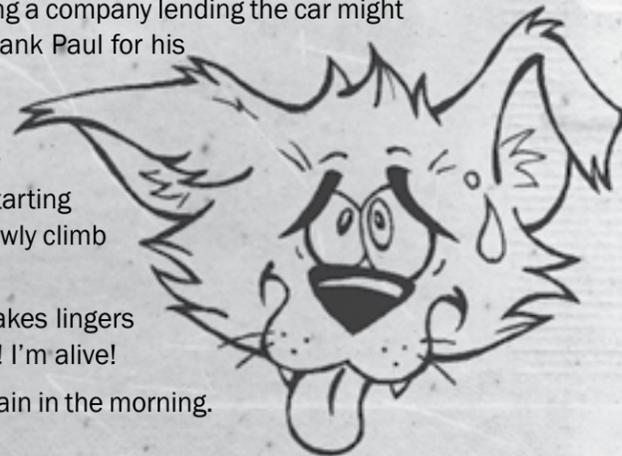

I roll down my windows. Panicked, I sputter about having no idea what to do. He tells me to pull over. Together we inspect the car, and try to figure out what went wrong. Eventually, my new friend Paul and I figure out that the emergency brake was on the entire time. Well, that would explain why I have been having so much trouble shifting gears.

To be fair, the badger couldn't find the e-brake himself. I only find it after popping open the glove box and rummaging through a 300 page "quick start" guide. The car is an unfamiliar model to me, with a new digitally-controlled brake that is finicky and counter-intuitive. You'd think it's the kind of thing a company lending the car might have the foresight to mention when they hand you the keys. I thank Paul for his help and get moving once again, this time without the thick gray cloud of dread obscuring my view.

I make yet another wrong turn, correct it, and eventually squeeze, barely, into a parking space. 45 minutes after first starting the car one mile up the road, the ordeal is finally, finally over. I slowly climb out of the car, shaking, and stagger to my room.

Gradually, the color returns to my fur. The reek of burning brakes lingers on me, but I don't care. I breathe. I laugh a little. Hey...I survived! I'm alive!

And...oh boy! I suddenly remember that I get to do it all over again in the morning.

We're dead chuffed to have such a brilliant team to make Megaplex shine. These hard working folks really know their onions!

Let's think the unthinkable, let's do the undoable.

Let us prepare to grapple with the ineffable itself, and see if we may not eff it after all.

MEGAPLEX CODE OF CONDUCT

The following policies are intended to help everyone have a safe, sane, and fun Convention. In general, Megaplex asks that you show respect and courtesy toward all attendees, hotel staff, and other guests. Consideration for the safety, rights and feelings of others will help to create a positive experience for everyone.

By accepting your membership badge, while at Megaplex, you agree to abide by the policies of the convention. You also acknowledge that a violation can result in your indefinite suspension from the convention, depending on the severity or repetition of an offense.

If Megaplex staff become aware of activities that are illegal or may threaten the welfare of the convention and its attendees, they have a duty and responsibility to inform hotel security and/or local authorities as warranted.

In General

The following “general rule” supersedes all others listed below and may be invoked at any time:

Any action or behavior that causes significant interference with convention operations, excessive discomfort to other attendees, or adversely affects Megaplex’s relationship with its guests, its venues or the public is strictly forbidden and may result in permanent suspension of membership.

Pawpet Live Experiences, Inc. (PLEx, Inc.) reserves the right to refuse or revoke membership at any time, for any reason, including (but not limited to) the failure to abide by the policies listed here. PLEx, Inc. also reserves the right to amend these rules at any time without prior or posted notice, and reserves sole right of interpretation.

Convention Space

“Convention Space” is defined as all publically accessible areas on the premises of the Embassy Suites Lake Buena Vista South (including the entire meeting space, lobby, atrium, dining areas, parking lot, elevators, stairwells and hotel room hallways) as well as the first floor Staff Suite and Sponsor Suite.

Convention Staff and Security

“Convention staff” are volunteers whose goal is to make sure everyone is comfortable and has a great time. The role of convention security staff (“security”) is to protect Megaplex’s attendees to the best of their ability by patrolling the convention space and enforcing convention policies.

If you have a problem or you are in trouble and need assistance, seek out a member of convention staff for help. Staff members can be identified by staff badge or designated staff outerwear.

The senior members of the convention staff will resolve any disputes or questionable events. Their decision will be final. Security will issue warnings if they observe violations. In any dispute, the general rule above will apply.

If you have a complaint or a non-urgent problem that cannot be solved until after the event, we recommend writing up as many details as possible about the issue and submitting it to a senior staff member, or emailing it to mp-feedback@megaplexcon.org. This is the best means for staff to listen and consider feedback, as staff may be very preoccupied during the event.

Membership

Nobody is permitted into convention space without a valid membership, represented by a membership badge (“badge”). Convention staff issues badges to a single individual. They may not be shared or duplicated in any way, and they may not be obtained by any other means.

You acknowledge that your government issued identification will be verified to validate the information that is found on the face of the ID, such as your name, address and birth date. This information is only used to verify your age and have your name on file in case an emergency arises. This information will not be published to any entity, and will only be used for aggregate analytic statistics.

Your badge must be visibly displayed at all times when in convention space, and must be presented or surrendered to any staff member upon request.

Megaplex reserves the right to request that you purchase a full-price membership to replace a lost or stolen badge. In the event of a lost badge, a single replacement badge may be issued at a reduced cost. Repeated lost badges will need to be replaced at the price of a full membership.

Minors

Anyone 16 or older and able to present a valid government-issued photo identification (“ID”) may register to attend any general audience events.

Anyone between 13 and 17 years of age, excluding anyone between 16 and 17 with ID, will require a parent or legal guardian (“parent”) present at registration on site. Parents must have a valid ID, and will be responsible for anyone in their care. (You must have your own parent or legal guardian with you to receive your badge.)

Anyone 12 and under is admitted free and should not register online, but must be accompanied at all times either by a parent or a chaperone. Chaperones must be designated by the parent at the time of registration.

Anyone under 18 may not enter areas designated for mature audiences.

Attendees under 16 years of age may not volunteer at the convention per Florida’s child labor laws.

Public Decorum

Unless otherwise noted, this section applies to convention space and to all hotel property, with the exception of private hotel rooms with doors closed.

All areas are considered to be suitable for all audiences, unless explicitly noted otherwise. Access to any events or content inappropriate for minors is controlled by security.

Dry clothes (shirt, shorts, and shoes at a minimum) are required. Clothing may not be overly revealing or inappropriate to the atmosphere of the convention, such as fetish-related garb and accoutrements. Discrete wearing of collars is acceptable, but leashes are not.

Full-body costumes and fursuits are excluded from the ‘shirt/pants/shoes’ rule, provided that the costume is not unacceptably revealing. Certain accoutrements such as collars and harnesses may be included as part of a costume, but no one is to be led around on a leash.

Convention or hotel security reserves the right to ask any attendee to remove an accessory or article of clothing that is deemed to be disruptive to an event or function, or to the convention as a whole, such as (but not limited to) profanity, or symbols or messages of hate.

Public displays of affection beyond what is appropriate for polite company are frowned upon. Holding hands, hugging, chaste kissing, and the like are fine; anything beyond that is best taken to your hotel room.

Props, toys or accessories capable of causing injury, discomfort, or damage to clothing, costumes or property, or create a security risk are not permitted in convention space. This includes (but is not limited to) scooters, wheeled boards (such as “Hoverboards”), radio controlled drones, laser pointers, water guns, Nerf or other dart guns, and Silly String.

Aisles, corridors, and passages should be kept open and clear. Please be considerate of passersby and stay out of the way of traffic.

Conversation, music and video playback should be kept to a moderate volume and outside event rooms, as not to disrupt convention programming. Loud noise makers are not permitted.

Do not disrupt panels or events. A disruption may be (but is not restricted to) talking, shouting, heckling, or talking back, during panels or events in a way that might distract, interrupt or upset any performers, convention staff, vendors, or attendees of any age.

Banners, posters or signs may not be posted without permission. Convention banners, posters, signs and any other convention or hotel property, may not be removed or moved without permission.

Smoking or vaping is not allowed in any convention space, or hotel common areas, including the pool deck. Please use the designated smoking locations found outside the hotel.

Harassment of any kind, including physical assault, battery, deliberate intimidation, stalking, or unwelcome physical attentions, will not be tolerated. If someone tells you “no” or to leave them alone, your business with them is done. If anybody is repeatedly making you uncomfortable, please find a member of staff to help.

Megaplex staff is not responsible for solving any interpersonal or relationship problems that may arise between individual members. In general, we can take no action to prevent a person from attending the convention unless that person has made a specific and credible threat toward the convention itself or if another individual can produce a legal restraining order.

Alcohol and Drugs

Providing alcohol to individuals under the age of twenty-one (21) is against the law and convention policy.

Megaplex does not condone or tolerate the possession, use or distribution of illegal substances.

Weapons

All Federal, State, and local laws and ordinances apply to the possession, carry, and display of weapons at Megaplex.

No weapons, open carry or concealed, are allowed, and no real or prop weapon may be used or displayed in a threatening, reckless or dangerous manner.

For the safety and peace of mind of all attendees, all potentially deadly weapons, and realistic replicas that could be mistaken for deadly weapons, must be disabled, peace-bonded, or otherwise rendered inert while on display at the convention. If a weapon or replica is part of your costume, please consult Security for direction.

Room Parties

Activities taking place in a private hotel room are the responsibility of the person(s) renting the room. We do recommend that parties be kept to a moderate size, and that the noise be kept to moderate volume. Hotel security will break up parties that receive complaints.

Per hotel policy, kegs may not be brought into the hotel or guest rooms, and the hotel may evict, without refund, all occupants of a room violating this policy.

Photographic, Audio, and Video Recordings

Attendees should be aware that they may be photographed or recorded at any time while in public areas. Megaplex reserves the right to authorize individuals to create and edit photographic, audio or video recording of convention space and events (many of which involve audience participation), and to distribute these productions, in whole or part, free of charge, for historical or promotional purposes. Attendees agree that they are not entitled to any notice or compensation for the appearance of their names, aliases or likenesses in such productions.

Members who wish to take pictures or make recordings for personal, non-commercial use while at the convention may do so in any areas, unless recording is explicitly forbidden, verbally or by sign, in an area or a performance. We ask that photographers and videographers act with common sense and courtesy, and refrain from recording any non-consenting individual.

The Funday Pawpet Show (FPS) may not be recorded without permission.

Permitted recordings may be shared on personal, not for profit websites. However, if someone is in the focus of the picture by themselves or with one other person, and they wish to have their photo removed, you must respect that person's request and remove the image. If the person is in a group of three or more in the photo, then it is considered a group photo, and would require objection from at least a 50% majority of the people in the photo.

Megaplex will not use the names or likenesses of corporately owned and trademarked mascots, puppets or other characters for any commercial or promotional purposes, except according to prior written agreement.

Press and Media Policy

Megaplex is a private social function for members only, and as such, is closed to all press and media members and organizations. Making photographic, audio or video recordings of any convention event for investigative or commercial purposes is strictly forbidden.

Press and media members desiring a statement, press release or interview from Convention Staff should contact the Convention Director or Convention Promotions Director. Each request will be considered individually and on a case-by-case basis.

Pets and Service Animals

For the safety and comfort of members and pets alike, we do not allow any personal pets in convention space. Working service animals are permitted in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Dealer's Den and Artist Alley

Sales are not allowed anywhere in convention space except by paid vendors in the Dealers Den and by attendees utilizing the Artist Alley.

Convention and hotel staff take care to secure the Dealers Den area when it is closed, although it is recommended not to leave any cash or valuables in the area unattended at any time.

Merchants and sellers are required to collect a 6.5% sales tax per state and county law. The collection and remittance of taxes to the State is the responsibility of the individual dealers. The Florida Department of Revenue (DOR) has a Guide to Sales Tax for Convention Exhibitors and you can fill out much of the required paperwork on the DOR Website. Every seller will be required to show us that they already have a sales tax certificate, or we will be providing a sales tax packet to each and every dealer or artist alley artist that intends to make sales. It is up to the individuals to be sure they report and submit.

Stored and displayed items must not impede traffic flow, both in front of and behind tables. No more than two people may sit behind each table in the Dealers Den.

Artist Alley seats are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Artists may use only one space in the Artist Alley at a given time. Seats may not be "held" for another person. Artist Alley spots that are left alone for longer than 15 minutes are considered abandoned and may be claimed by another artist.

Any material that is not suitable for minors must be censored while it is on display. Collections of adult artwork should be kept in a separate binder and marked as mature. Sellers are responsible for keeping unsuitable material away from the eyes (and out of the hands) of minors. Badges will include a "Minor" designation for attendees under 18.

Dealers Den tables may not be shared or resold without permission from the Dealers Den lead.

As with all convention space, loud or irritating displays are not permitted. Please keep all noise down to a reasonable volume.

Stolen material, pirated material, and weapons are not permitted for sale at Megaplex. In the Artist Alley, an item is only permitted for sale if it is either created by the seller or it is a composite work of which at least 75% is the original work of the seller. If you are unsure whether your items are allowed, please consult convention staff.

The Dealers Den lead will have the final say on all disputes in the Den.

In Closing

These policies will be strictly enforced by security and staff, who will be clearly identified as such on site.

If a particular scenario is not specified here, the general rule listed at the beginning of this document will apply: Any action or behavior that causes significant interference with convention operations, excessive discomfort to other attendees, or adversely affects Megaplex's relationship with its guests, its venues or the public is strictly forbidden and may result in permanent suspension of membership.

These policies are intended to allow our members to have a safe, enjoyable convention experience. While we do not anticipate having to enforce these rules, be advised that convention staff will do so swiftly and firmly if the need arises.
